GADSDEN, Ala. (AP)—A crude fire-bomb was thrown at a synagogue during a dedication ceremony Friday night and two members of the congregation were shot when they rushed outside to investigate.

Police sought a high school boy who reportedly told friends this was a plot to bomb a synagogue.

Police Commissioner M. T. Mashburn said he believed young men—either in their late teens or early 20s—were involved.

A car containing a .22 caliber rifle was found abandoned near the synagogue a few moments after the homemade bomb hit and burst into flames.

"We think this is the car that was used," said Mashburn. Mashburn said he had heard reports that anti-Semitic literature was distributed here Friday.

One of the gunshot victims, Alan Cohn, 35, was in serious condition with wounds in the chest and back. The other, Alvin Lowi, 64, suffered a hand wound.

Police said the bomb, a soft-drink bottle loaded with kerosene or gasoline, struck a stained glass window. The glass shattered but the wire mesh in the glass kept the bottle from crashing through.

"Some of the fire came in," said Hyman Rosenberg, president of the congregation. "You could see it falling to the floor and burning."

Mrs. Lowi, wife of one of the wounded men, gave this account of what followed:

"The glass broke. It was a terrible feeling. Mr. Cohn was sitting near the back. He was the first to run out."

"Just after he ran out, there was a shot. My husband ran out and somebody yelled for him to duck. They got him in the hand."

Lowi's son David, about 50, was the third man out of the building. "I came from another exit and ran around to the front of the building just as the car sped away. They apparently shot at my father and Mr. Cohn because they thought they were trapped."

About 180 persons—including Methodist and Baptist ministers—were in the synagogue attending dedication ceremonies for a new wing.

Don't Fence Me in Phrase Doesn't Apply

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—A year ago Clarence Lott built a grape stake fence. He asked neighbor Robert Darnell if he wanted to share the cost. Darnell said no. Recently, Darnell decided to fence his property. He asked Lott if he could use the grape stake fence along one side. No, said Lott.

So Darnell built his own fence—30 view-obstructing feet of it—six inches from Lott's fence. It ran right down to the sidewalk. He painted it with polka dots. On Lott's side only.

Now Lott is building a third fence, to screen the polka dots. It will be whitewashed.

And then, he said, he will move away.

Poe Reappointed by Governor

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today reappointed Max Poe of Pocahontas to the Board of Trustees of Arkansas State College at Jonesboro.

Faubus also reappointed J. G. Waskom Jr. of Marked Tree to the board of the Fargo Training School for Negro Girls.

Must Win Quick

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Former Sen. William F. Knowland says Sen. John F. Kennedy must win the Democratic presidential nomination within three convention ballots or face defeat.

The onetime Republican Senate majority leader told the Long Beach Dinner Club during a question-and-answer session that Kennedy could be unbeatable at the convention if he makes a good showing in the Wisconsin and West Virginia primaries.

Weather

Mostly cloudy with few widely scattered showers mainly in east portion today, partly cloudy and warmer Saturday night and Sunday. Mild. Highest Saturday 62.

OPERATION BOTTLE DROP—A crewman of the U.S. survey ship Explorer tosses a bottle with message into the sea as the ship leaves Seattle, Wash. The bottle has a message in four languages (English, French, Spanish and Japanese) fired in the glass asking the finder to mail the postcard sealed inside. Similar bottles will be dropped as the ship sails south, through the Panama Canal and then to Norfolk, Va. It's a plan to help map the currents of both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

Chinchillas Have Some Ways Like People, at Least the Female Is Boss of Household

By MARY ANITA LASETER

(This is the concluding article about the chinchilla ranch of Paul Raley.)

Spring appeared calendar-wise this week, and everyone knows that love, spring and a young man's fancy are invariably wrapped up together. The same thing is true of most creatures. Except chinchillas in the United States, that is.

Being originally from South America, they instinctively feel spring like in the fall and winter. I learned while recently visiting the chinchilla ranch of Paul Raley on West Third Street here in Hope. While most litters arrive between April and September, though, the tiny chinchilla with its large, beautiful black eyes is liable to put in an appearance at any season of the year.

Rancher Raley explained that chinchillas are strict vegetarians and thrive on what we sometimes call "rabbit food." They also have strong hind legs for jumping, with front legs that are small and paws that are more like hands. Also, chinchillas have very long quivering whiskers.

These facts led me to believe they must be of the rabbit family. Such is not the case, Mr. Raley said. It's nearest North American relative is the porcupine. Though the chinchilla has relatively long fingers which are used for holding food or objects that strike its fancy, they have no claws and do not scratch, dig or burrow.

The females are boss of the chinchilla household. They are larger than the male and make good use of this advantage. They are jealous of their mates and employ effective means to discourage feminine competition or unwelcome suitors. They are fine mothers and seldom need help in raising their young, but the males are always ready and willing to help by guarding and warming the new babies.

From two to five babies are in a litter of chinchillas, but if more than two are born at one time the mother has difficulty supplying enough milk for all. In such cases Mr. Raley supplies the milk with pablum. Chinchillas are expensive to feed, averaging about $8 per year. They consume only about one and half ounces daily.

Chinchillas contract the same diseases as practically any other rodent, so cleanliness and simple diet are the watchwords of practical care. Fur chewing is a problem with the owners of many chinchilla ranches, but this has never been a difficulty with the Raley animals. Perhaps it is due to their owner's care in keeping a circulation of fresh air in their houses.

The animals are nocturnal, sleeping all day. They have no odor and are very clean. An important event in the daily life of every chinchilla is its bath in dry, dusty sand in which they dig and roll and dust themselves. In this way they remove all moisture or oil from their fur and keep it clean and fluffy.

Chinchilla fur is impossible to birthdays.

imitate, for its texture and color pattern defy the most clever imitator. Its structure is as fine as a spider web. If a person's eyes are closed, it is very doubtful he will know when he touches chinchilla fur, as it has a softness not found anywhere else. In color each fiber has a triple luster. Next to the skin is a broad band of slate blue, then a white band averaging one-quarter inch wide, and this is tipped with a dark veiling.

The blue-gray effect of chinchilla produces an outstanding beauty that always stands alone and epitomizes the phrase, "A thing of beauty is a joy forever."

Almost Like Christmas
LOS ANGELES (AP)—It was almost like Christmas for the Cedersdorm family Thursday.

Fred Jr., 8, got a bicycle, Mike, 7, an electric train, and Cynthia, 1, a doll and doll house.

All three were celebrating their birthdays.

Cites Need for Democrat as President

DETROIT (AP)—Midwestern Democratic leaders opened a three-day political sparring match over issues and candidates today on the note that America needs a Democratic president in a world in which Red China may fire a nuclear explosion within six months.

This possibility was laid down by Trevor Gardner, once a member of the Eisenhower administration. Gardner resigned as assistant secretary of the Air Force for research and development with a blast at the administration.

Hound Missile Is Fired Successfully
EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—A GAM-77 Hound Dog missile was fired successfully over the Atlantic Test Range by a B-52 jet bomber.

The 51-foot missile streaked several hundred miles downrange before impacting in the Atlantic Ocean Thursday. It was fired from beneath the wing of a B-52 and was guided by its own navigation system.

The air-to-surface missile carried several hundred pounds of test equipment.

Five Marines Are Rescued
TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Five U.S. Marines, blown out to sea Tuesday in a rubber boat, have been rescued and flown to Formosa.

U.S. officials reported today the Marines were found on a small island 20 miles east of the southern tip of Formosa. Names of the men were not announced, but the Navy said all were in good condition.

The Marines were set adrift while on a reconnaissance mission as part of Operation Blue Star, a joint U.S.-Chinese amphibious exercise that began Monday off southern Formosa.

One Point Apart
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There may be only one major issue unresolved by the striking Screen Actors Guild and the Assn. of Motion Picture Producers.

The point still reportedly unsettled, as talks resume today, was a union demand for a share in profits from the sale of certain movies to television. The pictures would be those made after January 1960.

Both sides reportedly have agreed for a formula on sale of films made between 1948 and 1960 to TV. The union would take a lump sum payment under this plan.

The producers reportedly have agreed to make payments for post-1960 films but want the formula to be applied only to films that make a profit.

Tax Collector Is Found Guilty

HARRISON, Ark. (AP)—A circuit court jury yesterday found former Boone County Collector Paul Young guilty of misappropriating public funds and recommended six years imprisonment. Then the jury suggested clemency.

A date was not set for sentencing.

Young was found guilty on two of three misappropriation charges. He was cleared on a charge of altering public records.

The jury recommended five years in prison on one charge and one year on the other. The recommendation for clemency carries a possible lighter sentence, or a suspended one.

Young denied any wrongdoing. He was collector for 10 years and his tenure expired Dec. 31, 1958. Before the trial, he had paid the county $2,664 allegedly shown missing in an audit of books.

Khrushchev, DeGaulle Hold Talks

By DAID MASON

PARIS (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev pressed his campaign today for a Moscow-Paris axis to replace the growing alliance between France and West Germany.

The Soviet leader again assailed West Germany and emphasized that he believed France and the Soviet Union together could be a force to maintain peace on the Continent.

Khrushchev made his remarks in response to a toast to peace given by Premier Michel Debre at a luncheon in the Hotel Matignon, Debre's official residence.

He suggested that the ultimate in good relations between France and the Soviet Union would be achieved by a "pact of nonaggression between the two groupings of states." He apparently referred to the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and its Communist counterpart, the Warsaw Pact.

French sources, without quoting him directly, said he stressed the theme which he brought out shortly after his arrival Wednesday for a presummit visit with President Charles de Gaulle—that Germany is a menace and France should not trust her.

Khrushchev held a two-hour private talk with De Gaulle at the Elysee Palace this morning. Two interpreters were the only persons present as the two leaders talked in De Gaulle's private office.

They smiled pleasantly as they emerged and shook hands on the palace steps. Then Khrushchev drove off through a rain to lunch with Debre.

The first talks were held in a very good atmosphere, an aide to De Gaulle said. A high French source said the initial talk was largely exploratory and that De Gaulle and Khrushchev ranged over several subjects in the first of their series of meetings.

Khrushchev arrived at the palace in a pouring rain for the first business talk of his 11-day visit to France. Scores of policemen lined the Premier's route from the foreign office, where he is

Mexico Attache Blasts Castro as Dictator

By JACK RUTLEDGE

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Cuba's naval attache in Mexico Friday night joined the swelling ranks of Fidel Castro supporters who accuse the bearded Prime Minister of turning the Cuban revolution into a Communist-style dictatorship.

"The revolution has been betrayed," declared Capt. Jaime Varela Canosa, who said he would seek asylum in the United States "where one can breathe in an air of democracy and Christian liberty."

The 35-year-old officer was expected to cross the U.S. border at Laredo, Tex., today along with two aides who also resigned their posts at the Cuban Embassy.

Varela Canosa's wife and three daughters were to join him later.

The attache asserted in a farewell message left with friends that "in Cuba there exists a dictatorship of Communist inspiration, which has resulted in the negation of all liberties."

He charged the three directing the island republic toward outright communism were Castro, Ernesto Guevara, head of the Cuban National Bank, and Castro's younger brother, Raul, commander of the armed forces.

Varela Canosa said he hoped his navy comrades "who still remain blind before the reality which confronts Cuba under the iron tyranny of Dr. Castro will understand my attitude."

He was the fourth Cuban attache in recent weeks to defect, charging the Castro government and Cuban armed forces with heavy Communist infiltration.

The others were Lt. Cmdr. Miguel Pons, naval attache and chief military representative in the United States; Capt. Angel Saavedra, military and air attache in Washington; and Capt. Felipe Vidal Santiago, naval attache in Venezuela.

Santiago obtained asylum in Colombia.

U.S. officials said Pons and Saavedra would be granted asylum, just as some 1,000 other Cubans who fled their homeland since Castro took over and now are in the United States.

Cosmotology Board to Use Restraint

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus today said he had asked the State Board of Cosmetology to use restraint in enforcing its regulations on beauty schools and shops.

Otherwise, he said, some operators may have to go out of business.

"For instance," Faubus said, "they went to one place and told the woman she would have to have so much floor space for her school and there was only one building that big in the town and it was occupied."

"If the woman had adhered to the regulation, she would have had to go out of business."

"There is no argument about sanitary regulations, but I have simply asked the board not to go too far too quick," the governor added.

He said board regulations—not state laws—were involved.

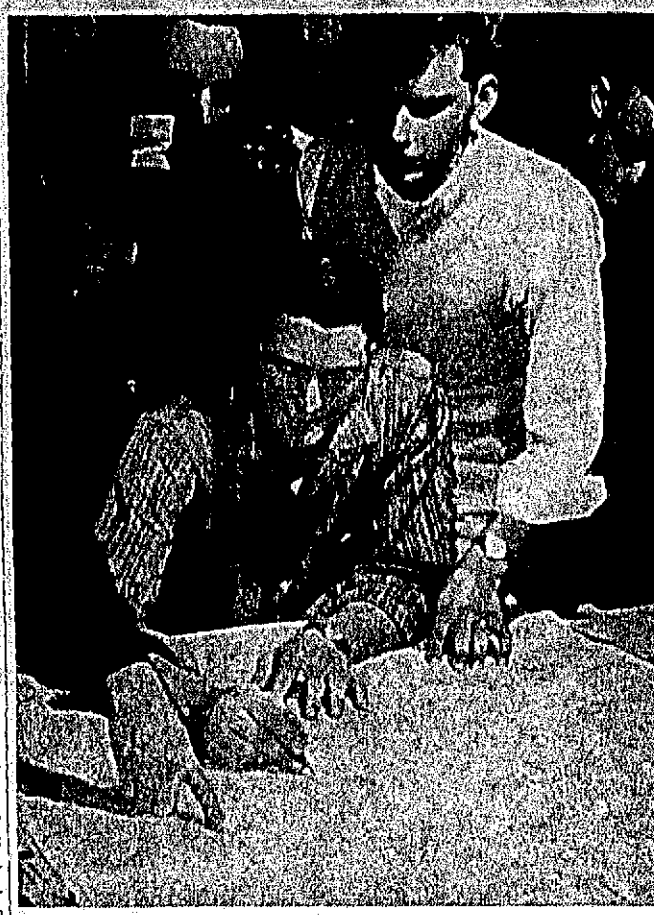

Faubus made his comments as the Arkansas Legislative Council's Health and Welfare Committee prepared to hold a hearing on a complaint of State Sen. Guy H. Jones of Conway who told of a balked upon a deliberate policy reports that the board was "emphatic for the harassment of some beauty school owners and operators."

Police Clues Few
OTTAWA, Ill. (AP)—Tips and conjectures continue to pour in but investigators admit they have little to go on in their efforts to track down the killer or killers of the wives of three Chicago business executives.

The women were slain March 14 a few hours after they had checked into the lodge at Starved Rock State park for a rest. Their battered bodies were found two days later in a shallow cave in a canyon in the year-round recreation area.

The victims were Frances Murphy, 47, Mildred Lindquist, 30, and Lillian Gelling, 36. All lived in Riverside, a Chicago suburb.

Scouts Plan 'Trail of Tears'

Recollection of the days of the early pioneers and the blazing of new trails and roads will be brought back this spring with a 50 mile section of the famous "Trail of Tears" will be opened by the Scouts of Explorer Post Number 72 of Bradley. This explorer post is sponsored by the Envyrd Byrd American Legion Post of Bradley.

This 50 mile segment of the "Trail of Tears" made by the five great tribes, the Cherokees, Choctaws, Chickasaws, Creeks and the Seminoles, will be used by the Boy Scouts of the Caddo Area Council for their encampments beginning this summer.

The original "Trail of Tears" led from Little Rock to Fort Towson (Choctaw County) Oklahoma, where the five tribes were later disbursed to various reservations throughout Oklahoma. The section to be explored by the Scouts will extend from Camp Pioneer, the Caddo Council Boy Scout Camp near Hatfield in the northwest section of the state, to a point near Wright City in the southeastern part of Oklahoma.

Blazing the trail will be John Robert Burkes, advisor for Post 72, several members of Post 72, George Bell, commander of Envyrd Byrd American Legion Post of Bradley, Glen Ruth, scoutmaster of Troop 72 of Bradley, George Brown, soil conservation office of Hope and Leonard Graham, District Scout Executive of the Piney Woods District. A tentative date of April 14 has been set for this three day expedition.

The group will spend Wednesday night, April 13 at Camp Pioneer where they will pack their horses and other camping equipment. Early the next morning they will begin their trek on horseback. They will travel through forests of virgin timber, ford the Mountain Fork River, near the state game reservation in McCurtain County, Okla., and pass by the Ite Mountain Forest Tower, Carter Mountain Forest Tower before arriving at Shergals, one of the downed Camp Glover, the Nolco Trail Riders, but have no business or other connections with him.

The denial came after Immigration Commissioner J. M. Swing when he told the Senate Appropriations Committee that his department was investigating a possible connection between Shergals and the Fidel Castro regime through the Elk brothers.

Swing testified late Thursday before the Senate voted $500,000 for a stepped-up campaign to halt sneak flights to Cuba.

Swing said his agents had learned that Shergals was associated in business with the brother of John Elk, whom he described as a registered agent for the Castro government. Swing suggested by implication that Shergals may have made a trip to Cuba last month with the agent under an assumed name.

One of the requirements for Scouts and explorers as they camp along the trail is that they make some improvements on the trail for other Scouts who may come after them. They will be performing conservation practices such as planting trees and establishing ground cover and feeding places for wildlife.

Under the removal act of 1830 these five great Indian tribes were driven from their lands in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, upper and central Mississippi and Florida to the Indian territory in Oklahoma.

Department Store Sales Decrease
ST. LOUIS (AP)—Department store sales in the Eighth Federal Reserve District last week were below the corresponding week of 1959.

Sales in the district as a whole dropped 14 per cent.

The St. Louis area showed the biggest individual slump, 16 per cent. Sales in seven smaller districts were down 15 per cent. The Little Rock area dropped 14 per cent. Memphis was down 12 per cent. and Louisville dropped 11 per cent.

Officials Brace for Series of New Sitdowns

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Authorities braced for further anti-segregation demonstrations today as the sitdowns developed several new twists.

The governor of one state charged a broadening campaign with planning a sit-in, a charge which was promptly denied by company officials and Negroes.

For the first time, Negroes were served coffee in the Houston, Tex., City Hall coffee shop, and in Atlanta, ministers called for week-end prayers to promote better understanding in the racial crisis.

More protests against segregated eating places in the South have occurred on Saturdays than on any other day in the week, a fact apparently noted by leaders in several states.

The Florida Board of Control Friday put while Florida State University and Negro Florida A. & M. University at Tallahassee on notice to maintain law and order.

The board did not spell out what steps the universities should take. Students from both have participated in recent sitdowns and some Florida legislators have demanded they be expelled.

Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee charged at Nashville that Friday's sit-in demonstrations by Negro students were "instigated and planned by, and staged for the convenience of the Columbia Broadcasting System."

Four Negro college students—three men and a woman—were arrested for failing to move on when a drug store lunch counter closed. The first demonstration in Nashville since early this month was staged after a meeting at a Negro church filmed by CBS news cameramen.

In New York, John Lynch, director of the Public Affairs Department of CBS News, said in a statement, "The Public Affairs Department of CBS News categorically denies any attempt to influence the demonstration in any way whatsoever."

The Rev. James Lawson Jr., who was dismissed from Vanderbilt University for his part in earlier demonstrations, said, "We could not and did not have any arrangement with CBS."

Fifty-eight Negroes held a prayer meeting on the steps of the courthouse at Concord, N.C., and then paraded through the city carrying signs with such slogans as "I am an American, too!" They acted two hours after seven students were arrested for trespassing at a lunch counter.

Recorder in Hands of New Owner
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Victor Ray, editor-publisher of the Union Labor Bulletin issued here, has taken over as editor of the Arkansas Recorder.

The Recorder is a weekly digest of political news.

Ray who also edits the Arkansas Union Farmer, took over the Recorder job from Ron Burnham. Burnham assumed the post several months ago. John F. Wells of Little Rock formerly ran the Recorder.

Ray said the Recorder will continue to be published by the Arkansas Publishing Co., which was sold along with the Recorder by J. H. Colwell Jr.

Asked about the new owners of the firm and the paper, Ray said only that their spokesman was Rep. Paul Van Dalsen of Perry County.

Van Dalsen has been closely associated with the administration of Gov. Orval E. Faubus.

The governor has denied any connection with the Recorder.

Pair Denies Link With Jailed Pilots

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two Miami brothers mentioned in congressional testimony have denied angrily any link with one of the Americans whose private plane was forced down Monday by gun fire in Cuba.

John Elk, 44, and Robert P. Elk, 33, said they know William J. Shergals, one of the downed pilots, but have no business or other connections with him.

The denial came after Immigration Commissioner J. M. Swing when he told the Senate Appropriations Committee that his department was investigating a possible connection between Shergals and the Fidel Castro regime through the Elk brothers.

Macmillan to Visit Ike for Test Ban Talk

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP) — British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan is expected to urge President Eisenhower to agree to a modified version of the Soviet proposal for banning nuclear weapons tests.

Macmillan, who will meet with Eisenhower next week, is understood to favor a time limit of about two years on the proposed moratorium on small underground tests.

Eisenhower administration leaders, in contrast to the British view, have so far decided only that the United States should not finally reject the Soviet plan, it is understood.

A major difficulty facing the President in his forthcoming talks with Macmillan is that some of his chief advisers from the Defense Department and the Atomic Energy Commission feel another series of underground nuclear weapons tests must be held some time in the relatively near future, perhaps late this fall. Agreement on any moratorium would bar such tests.

Macmillan is due in Washington late Saturday for probably two days of talks with Eisenhower beginning Monday. They may be held here or at Camp David, the President's retreat in Maryland.

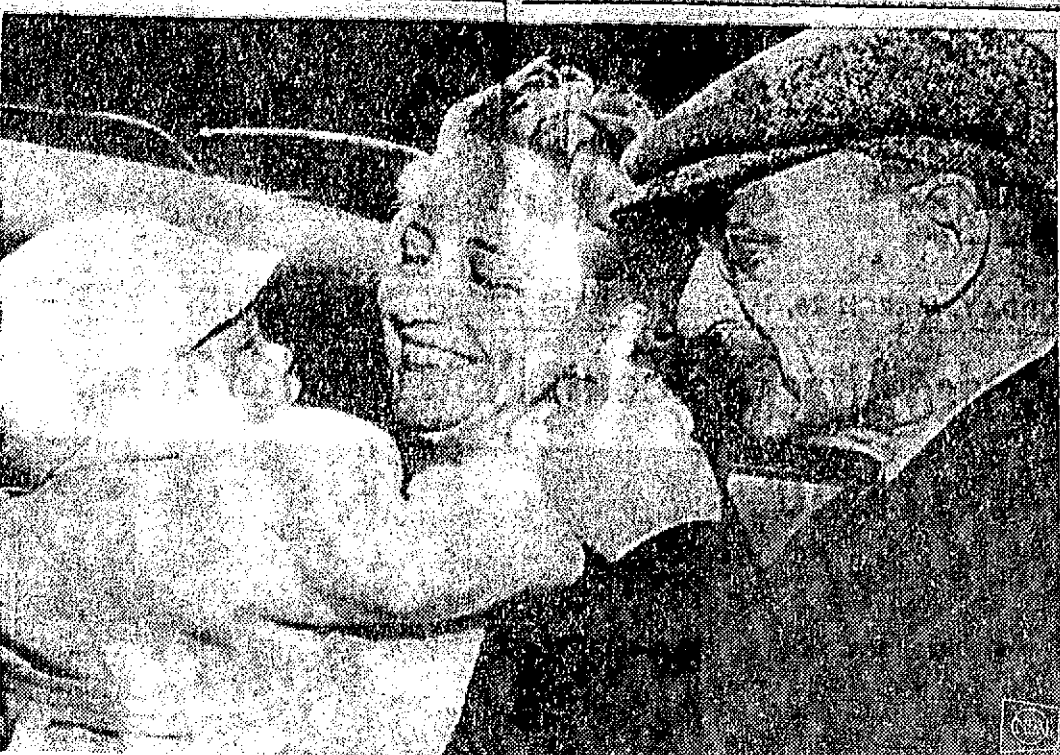

The Soviet proposition was put before Britain and the United States in three-power talks at Geneva. These talks have been under way since the fall of 1958. Until February they were aimed at producing a treaty which would prohibit all testing of atomic weapons with a system of inspection to prevent cheating.

In February Eisenhower called for a new approach on the agreement on a ban limited to those tests large enough to be detected easily. Scientists had advised that small underground explosions would be difficult for an inspection system to detect and that cheating on them would be possible.

The Soviets first denounced the President's limited treaty proposal but then on Saturday switched their position. They said they would be willing to negotiate a limited treaty provided that the three powers would at the same time agree to an informal moratorium on the small underground tests.

Their proposition is very similar to the line taken by the British in discussing Eisenhower's limited treaty plan at the time it was being developed. The British argued that the United States should declare its readiness to continue a voluntary ban on small underground tests for a period of time such as two years. During this period, they contended, ways might be found to improve detection methods so that all testing, including small underground explosions, could then be covered by the treaty.

The British position as it was being developed is thus very close to the present Soviet position. Some officials think that one reason the Soviets switched to a limited treaty concept was that they hoped thereby to split Britain and the United States.

John Lardner, Columnist, Dies at 47

NEW YORK (AP)—John Lardner, 47, noted columnist and author and son of the late Ring Lardner, died Thursday night at his Manhattan home.

Death was attributed to heart failure. He had been hospitalized recently because of a heart attack.

John was one of four sons of Ring Lardner, all of whom followed their famous father's footsteps in becoming newsmen, sports writers, columnists or authors.

John, early in his career, was a newspaperman and sports writer. He had been writing a weekly sports column for Newsweek magazine since 1939.

About a year and a half ago he began writing a column on television and radio for the New Yorker magazine. For a time, he also served as the New Yorker's drama critic.

Among John's books were "It Rains Working," "White Hopes and Other Tigers," and "Strong Cigars and Lovely Women." The writings were reminiscent of the whimsical style of his father who died in 1933.

John started his career as a reporter for the New York Herald Tribune from 1931-33. He became a sports columnist for the North American Newspaper Alliance, for which he worked until 1948.

During World War II, Lardner served as a war correspondent but the U.S. Army, covering operations in every major theater.

Born in Chicago, he studied at Phillips Academy and Harvard University.

Among survivors are his widow, Hazel, two daughters and a son.

A private funeral will be held at the Frank E. Campbell funeral home.

1. To plug for a German peace treaty on Soviet lines.

2. To hammer away for disarmament on Soviet terms.

3. To work on the North Atlantic Treaty Organization and the Western European Union, to both of which West Germany belongs.

What headway he may make is highly problematical. De Gaulle maintained a courteous reserve throughout the opening day of the visit but showed no sympathy with Khrushchev's talk of new danger from Germany.

De Gaulle aired his own view on Germany publicly at a banquet in the Soviet leader's honor at the Elysee Palace Wednesday night. In polite but firm words he declared the Germans "unabundant ambition" which had twice menaced the continent in this century. He had disappeared. He also disagreed with the standard Soviet line that the West German government seeks revenge for the World War II defeat.

This did not stop Khrushchev from replying with a reference to "the presence of the threat of a revenge" and of calling once more on the West to agree to a peace treaty with Germany, clearly on Soviet terms. And he repeated his place the Paris-Bonn alliance with a close French-Soviet understanding first made in his arrival speech.

THE BUSHWHACKERS by FRANK GRUBER

CHAPTER XXX

Bokker realized that he was closed, a shade inside was drawn to the sill.

Bokker tested the window. The catch inside was locked but the window was a poor fitting one. Bokker found his penknife, opened it and slipped it between the two window halves. He found the catch, pressed hard to the left. His knife blade went through. The catch was open.

He raised the window a full six inches in one quick movement and without a squeak, then repeated the procedure. Finally he had the window sufficiently high to permit his ingress into the bedroom beyond.

Carefully he stooped and permitted the window shade to flap against the sill. He was inside the room now, in total darkness. The room was small, he knew, and would contain a bed, possibly two. He listened and heard breathing and locating the source of it, made out a deeper shadow that was a bed.

He took a step forward—and stepped on a loose board.

A gasp told him that the occupant of the bed had awakened.

He lunged forward in the darkness. His knees struck a bed and he reached out. A scream started and Bokker, in panic, shot out his hands. They struck a face, smothered the rest of the scream.

Ruth Compton was caught at a disadvantage but she had a little strength and she was fighting with every ounce of fury in her body.

"Ruth," Bokker continued desperately, "Don't—it's Phil Bokker."

She stopped fighting then, but her body was tensed. He held a hand over her mouth. "I was ambushed near Acorn," Bokker said, talking very fast. "I was wounded and I've just come back to Pawnee City. Someone's in my place, waiting to kill me. I haven't got a gun."

She could not reply, of course, and he tentatively raised his hand a fraction of an inch. If she tried to scream he would clap it down again. She didn't scream, however.

"Let me up!"

He sat on the edge of the bed, inches from her.

"I've got to get a gun, Ruth," he said quietly.

"So you can kill again?" she threw at him.

"So I can keep from being killed. What—what happened after you left Acorn?"

"Nothing. What did you expect would happen?"

"But you must have heard shooting."

"We heard shooting, all right," Ruth said. "but I've heard shooting every night since I came to Pawnee. The marshal stayed with me all the way to Pawnee City—that's what you mean."

"Then it was Trow," Bokker paused.

Ruth's voice came from the darkness. "I don't like this, your coming into my bedroom at

No Shock at Symington's Declaration

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The buses ran on time. The children recited their lessons in the classrooms. There was no shock at all when Sen. Stuart Symington said he wanted to be president.

The only thing new about it—even though he said it before a jam-packed crowd in the Senate's caucus room—was that he finally got around to saying it publicly.

Still, it raised at least one question: How does a man finally get around to announcing he'd like to be the Democratic candidate for the White House?

First, you beat the bushes, as Symington did. This slim, well-dressed, 58-year-old onetime manufacturer had been running around for weeks, making speeches, shaking hands, looking for support, sizing up his chances.

Then you look at the clock. Here it is, near the end of March, and the Democratic National Convention is in July. Not much sense in waiting longer.

Next, you look around to see how goes it with those others who weeks ago removed the modest veil and frankly said they'd like the Democratic nomination: Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota.

If there's anything to be gained from an early start—and that's questionable—Kennedy has it. As of now he looks like the front-runner, with Humphrey trailing.

There is the possibility that Kennedy will get up so much momentum nothing can stop him. Symington doesn't want that. Put all the reasons together and you have a good explanation of why Symington announced Thursday.

But Symington denied he was acting now because his advisers were afraid of too big a lead for Kennedy. Instead, he said, he was getting into the race openly because his well-wishers wanted him to.

Symington let it be known on Wednesday he'd speak his piece Thursday.

The big caucus room was loaded with his friends, members of his family, newsmen, big lights, photographers, and even a couple of busloads of Missouri schoolchildren who said they happened to be in town for a few days.

The newsmen's questions were neither very penetrating nor very irritating. The well-heeled Symington, who made a point of saying he doesn't have much money, fielded their bunts easily.

Still, the whole show was pretty flat.

He didn't say anything to set the soul alive. But neither, for that matter, have Kennedy, Humphrey or Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who seems to have the Republican nomination safe in his refrigerator.

There just haven't been any emotional blazes so far in the presidential race. And if what's happened so far is a foretaste of the fall campaign, it's likely to be deep on the dull side.

When asked how he felt about taking on Nixon in the presidential night.

An electric shock seemed to shoot through Bokker. He reached out suddenly, his hand touching Ruth's nightgown figure, brushing it. She pulled away instantly, but Bokker knew. "In Raytown it was you!"

Legion and Auxiliary Observe Anniversary

Members of the American Legion and its auxiliary met jointly Monday night at the Legion Hut to observe the 41st anniversary of the organization.

After the group had assembled at the hut the two groups met in separate sessions for their monthly business meeting.

Mrs. Paul Koslosky presided at the Auxiliary and Mrs. A. R. Underwood, chaplain led in prayer. The pledge of allegiance to the flag and the preamble to the constitution was repeated in unison.

The president appointed Mrs. John McRae chairman of the annual Poppy sale. It was announced that three memorial funds had been sent into the state child welfare fund in memory of L. L. Mitchell, Mrs. Alie Huskey and Mrs. Alexana Osburn McMaster.

Commander John McRae led a discussion with the Legionnaires on projects to increase the Legion's treasury and the sponsoring of a base ball team this summer. Plans were made for the Legion to sponsor a program to send several youths to boys state in June.

Following the business session the 40 members present enjoyed a polluck supper. Maurice McLeland gave the invocation. The tables were centered with a large white birthday cake emossed in red and blue and topped with 41 candles.

Miss Guley Honored

The Youth Center was the scene of a gift tea on Monday when Mrs. A. M. Rettig, Mrs. J. L. Coe and Mrs. Marion Wicker honored Miss Nancy Guley, bride-elect of Lanny Thompson of Miami, Fla.

Mrs. Wicker, Miss Guley and her mother, Mrs. John Guley, greeted the guests. Mrs. Coe and Mrs. Buck Epperson received the gifts and arranged them on a table covered with a white cloth and centered with a shower bride doll holding a lace umbrella. Beside the doll a styrofoam frame held pictures of the engaged couple. The honoree received a corsage of white carnations from the hostesses.

A white organdy skirt around the tea table was overlaid with white taffeta and caught up at the corners with white satin bows.

White tapers in crystal holders flanked the centerpiece of white carnations and sweetheart roses in a crystal bowl. Miss Martha Pry served individual cakes emossed with white sugar bells and pink sweetheart roses. Punch was served by Miss Bonnie Morrow. Misses Ellen and Kathy Rettig assisted with the serving.

Out of town guests included Mrs. Lawrence Purifoy, and Mrs. Buck Epperson of Camden, Mrs. Ewell Guley Jr. of Chidester and Mrs. Bobby Hendrix of Hope.

Mr. and Mrs. Shell Blakely, Kim, Kathy and Ann of Memphis have been the guests of her parents.

Supply of Polio Vaccine Used Up

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Health Department's supply of polio vaccine has been used up and county health units have been asked to return any surplus vaccine to the state agency.

This means Arkansasans wanting polio vaccine now must go to private doctors.

The state has no more funds to purchase the vaccine.

The federal government provided funds for the vaccine until this year, then states were expected to underwrite their own programs. Arkansas was one of the states that did not.

Dr. J. T. Herron, state health officer, said whatever surplus vaccine is on hand at the end of March will be dumped out as worthless. The vaccine has a "safe" potency of about nine months.

Phone Calls Delayed

NEW YORK (AP)—Telephone calls between New York and London were delayed about an hour today by a break in one of the two transatlantic telephone cables.

The break occurred 80 miles off Sydney Mines, N. S., between Nova Scotia and Labrador.

An official of the American Telephone & Telegraph Co. said the break was in an area where fishing fleets are active and it probably resulted from dragging operations.

Actress Leaves Hospital

NEW YORK (AP)—Actress Kim Stanley, who suffered a miscarriage in an early stage of her pregnancy, has been discharged from Doctors Hospital. The star, wife of actor Alfred Ryder, is recuperating at her home here. Her role in "Two for the Seesaw" opening next week at Palm Beach, Fla., has been assumed by Mary Tahmin.

their cattle. There was an epidemic of cholera raging in Little Rock at that time and the people of Little Rock would not let the Indians pass through the city and they were forced to cross the Arkansas river above Little Rock, where they struck the old military road. They began their first movement over this trail in November of 1892.

However, it was not until the end of the summer of 1838 — a season of great heat and dryness — that the armies of Indians, which now totaled about 15,000, took to the road. They traveled in wagons, on horseback and some on foot, over a circuitous route from Nashville, northward into Kentucky, crossed the Ohio into Illinois and the Mississippi at Cape Girardeau, Mo., through northwest Arkansas into the Indian territory in Oklahoma. Four thousand Indians of the Cherokee tribe died along this trail. This was the famous "Trail of Tears."

Many of the Indians, their chiefs and numerous infants perished along the trail. A famous chief, Tishupingo, was buried along this trail.

Despite a grueling 13-hour day of activity Wednesday, the 67-year-old Soviet leader seemed little the worse for wear.

No formal agenda was announced for the Khrushchev-De Gaulle talks, but the Soviet Premier made his objectives clear in three public statements. These are his aims:

1. To woo France from her new ties with West Germany and replace the Paris-Bonn alliance with a close French-Soviet understanding.

Drive Starts to Ped Up U. S. Tourist

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—A drive is under way to pep up another of America's lagging exports — the foreign tourist. Both in numbers and in spending, he is still far behind that U. S. import, the American tourist abroad.

The foreign visitor ranks as an U. S. export because he brings money into the country—just as do the sale of our other exports, cotton, cars, refrigerators, electrical machinery and so on.

When you spend your dollars abroad you add to the total of U. S. imports—all paid for by U. S. dollars given to the foreign sellers. In the statistical tables a foreign inn keeper ranks right along with a foreign manufacturer.

Why the urgency to get more overseas visitors to spend more here?

Dollars paid out to other lands—for goods, services, investments, travel and foreign aid—have been running almost four billion dollars a year more than money received from the sale of our goods, services and from returns on our existing investments abroad.

This has caused a loss of part of our gold reserves and it continued could put the dollar itself under pressure.

The government is now moving to attack this problem on all fronts—including sightseeing. This isn't as small an item as you may believe. It runs into billions of dollars a year.

President Eisenhower is supporting the effort by travel organizations to promote 1960 as "Visit U. S. Year." In a message to Congress calling for measures to increase export volume in general.

Only Five Cases of Polio Reported

WASHINGTON (AP)—Only five polio cases were reported by the states for the week ended March 19. Four were paralytic.

Reporting this today, the Public Health Service said the total for all types of cases was the lowest for any week since March 1958.

States reported 851 cases of infectious and serum hepatitis last week, the highest weekly total since 1955. Hepatitis is a viral disease which affects the liver.

Butler Names a Campaign Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic National Chairman Paul M. Butler has named a campaign planning committee composed of representatives of announced and unannounced candidates for the presidential nomination.

A national committee spokesman said today the group organized March 14 and will meet again next Tuesday. The spokesman declined to comment on a report that the first meeting split sharply over a Butler proposal to spend $400,000 for a pre-convention campaign to attack Vice President Richard M. Nixon and the Republican party.

The New York Herald-Tribune reported today the Butler plan is to blank the nation this spring with a series of 20-second and one-minute TV spots with animated cartoons poking fun at the GOP.

The committee spokesman said there could be no comment on what was discussed because the March 14 meeting was a closed affair and no conclusions were reached.

But the spokesman said further meetings will be held for the purpose of coordinating the party's campaign.

The committee's two top officers, Chairman Butler and Deputy Chairman Samuel Brightman, were out of the city. Brightman was in Detroit for the conference of Midwestern Democrats and Butler will arrive there late tonight from Los Angeles.

Among the members of the planning committee are George E. Reedy, representing Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas; Theodore Sorenson, administrative assistant to Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts; Rep. Charles H. Brown of Missouri, campaign manager for Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri; Herbert J. Walters, representing Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota; Fred Dutton, for Gov. Edmund G. Brown of California; Robert Burkhardt, for Gov. Robert B. Meyner of New Jersey; and Neil Staebler, for Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan.

News Briefs

BUENOS AIRES (AP)—The Army has arrested about 600 persons, smashing what it called a terrorist plot to disrupt congressional elections Sunday.

The army commander, Gen. Carlos Toranzo Montero, said a majority of those arrested were supporters of ex-dictator Juan Peron. He said the terrorists hoped eventually to overthrow the government.

CAIRO (AP)—The United States is lending the United Arab Republic 47 million dollars in funds and commodities, a U. S. embassy spokesman announced today. Three agreements covering the loans will be signed Saturday.

NAHA, Okinawa (AP)—The local government, cracked down today on an Okinawan animal trainer whose fight between a lion and five dogs drew protests from Japan and the United States.

"The government has decided not to approve any more applications for vicious animal fights of this nature," the social affairs director, Shochi Ota, said.

The trainer, Chorya Yonaha, had planned to put his lioness against a bull next month.

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Soldiers guarded the Education Ministry and the National Teachers College today after, violent clashes with striking students in which an estimated 100 persons were injured. Apparently the injuries were not serious.

About 600 students from the college, protesting their possible assignment to teach outside Mexico City after graduation, stormed past police and into the ministry building Thursday night.

SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico (AP)—A Dominican Republic air force officer was free on parole today after fleeing from what he said was imminent arrest by Generalissimo Rafael Trujillo's regime.

Roaring into the U. S. Air Force's Ramey Base in a Vampire jet Thursday, Capt. Otilio Aquino requested political asylum.

BERLIN (AP)—East German Communist Premier Otto Grotewohl today called for a joint committee of East and West Germans to draft proposals for a peace treaty with the great powers.

He told a news conference that he had written West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer making the suggestion. He is not likely to get an answer. The West German Federal Republic, like the other Western powers, does not recognize the East German Communist regime.

DOWNIEVILLE, Calif. (AP)—Larry Lord Motherwell, Sierra County's model prisoner, says he is grateful to a jury that voted for life imprisonment for him.

Jurors could have given him the death penalty after finding him guilty of murdering Pearl Putney, 72, a well-to-do Washington, D.C., widow, whose bones were found near this mountain community.

Motherwell, 42, an admitted liar and confidence man, has steadily denied killing the woman who took a cross-country auto trip with him in 1958.

Says Smoking Gigs Perk-up Chemical

By JOHN BARBOUR
Associated Press Science Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Smoking may give you a lift by triggering release of a perk-up chemical deep in the brain, a British scientist suggested today.

This chemical may, in part, be responsible for the "pleasure of smoking," said Dr. J. H. Burn of Oxford University.

Nicotine from tobacco smoke enters the blood stream and it could unlock stores of the chemical, called norepinephrine, Burn said in a talk prepared for a symposium partly sponsored by the Tobacco Industry Research Committee.

Norepinephrine is a chemical cousin to the hormone adrenalin which makes your heart race when you're in danger.

Burn explained: "It seems to me extremely likely that the pleasure of smoking is in part derived from the release of norepinephrine from its store in the brain by nicotine, the release giving an increased feeling of cheerfulness and a sense of relief from fatigue."

Nicotine from smoking speeds up the heart, he said, probably by releasing this same chemical from special storage units in the heart.

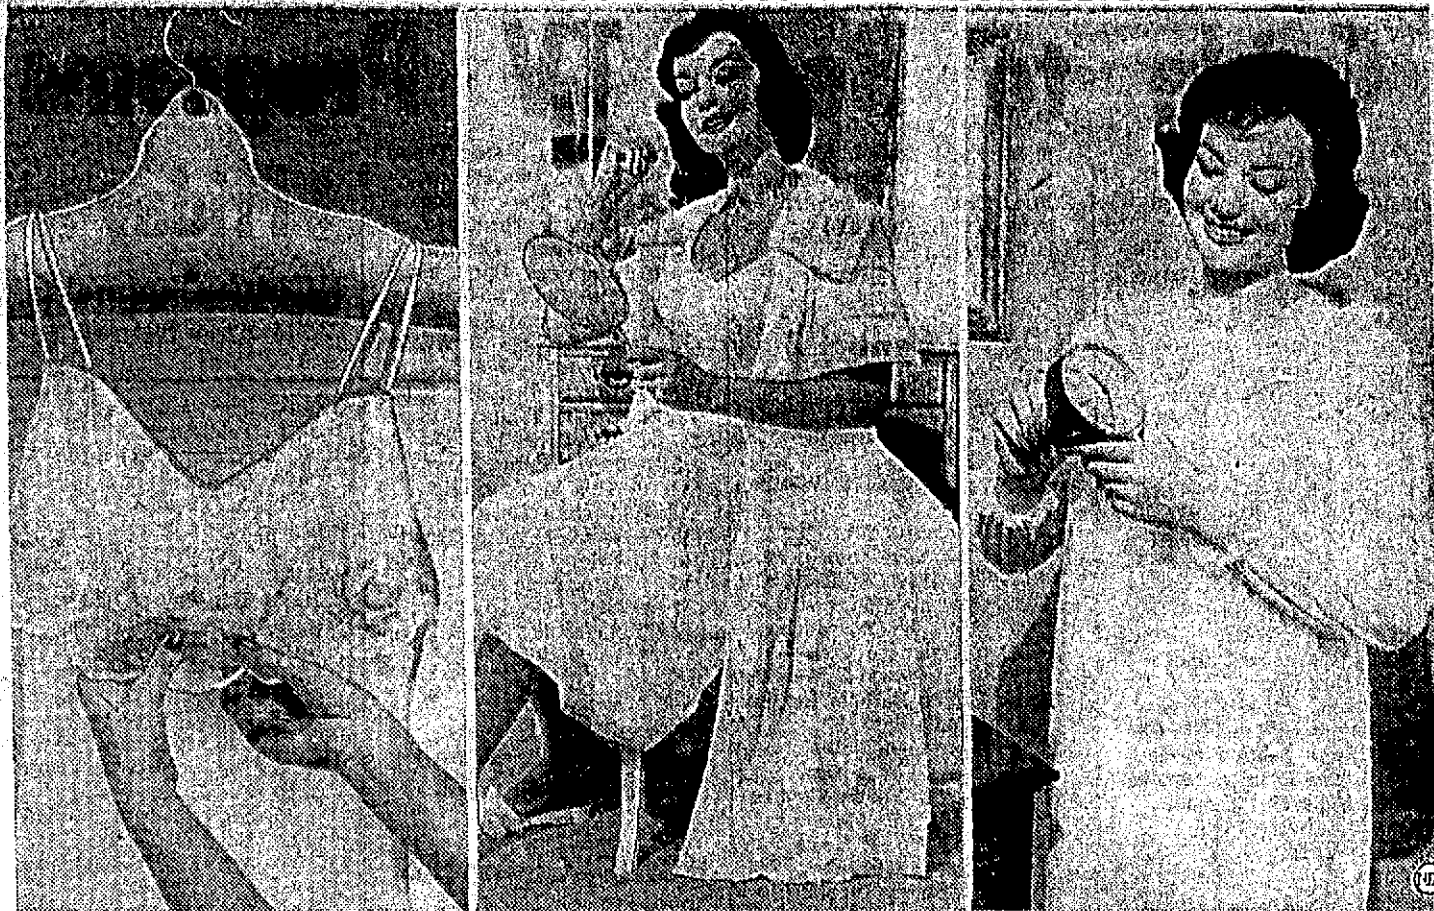

This same chemical, liberated by nicotine, may be responsible for the sharp fall in skin temperatures caused by smoking cigarettes, he said.

Since the lady's maid is a thing of the past, it's fortunate that the lingerie which looks so wispy is actually very practical. It takes next to no care but it does take some. The bodice overlay of this textured nylon gown (left), for instance, has rose appliques of re-embroidered French chiffon lace. The raised effect of the flowers can be restored by fluffing out flowers as the gown dries. A gown-and-peignoir set (center) should be quickly laundered, without wringing, in soapy warm water and allowed to drip-dry. This is all that's needed to restore the seemingly-fragile beauty. Brushed nylon gown (right) with delicate lace trim may be washed by hand or machine. For machine washing, use short wash and rinse cycles. Lace trim can be perked up by fingerpressing while it's still damp. It will readily return to its former fluffy state.

"Love One Another"

By DOROTHY DIX

I have been re-reading the New Testament and with it, "The Human Life of Jesus," by John Erskine.

The troubled souls who pour out their woes to this column would have fewer problems if they took to heart Jesus' commandment, "Love one another as I have loved you."

I wish they would study that moving chapter in the New Testament in which St. John, the Beloved Disciple, describes Jesus' talk to his disciples before the Feast of the Passover. "He knew that his hour had come to depart out of this world to the Father," St. John tells us. "Having loved his own in this world, He loved them to the end."

Mr. Erskine also tells of Jesus at the Feast of the Passover. There is one passage in this chapter which we could all profit by. Here it is. Read it and re-read it.

"He (Jesus) thought of life itself as a table spread, where we sit as invited guests with a courtesy and cheerfulness, appreciation and gratitude, wit and noble talk, for the greater delight and happiness of those who are bidden with us. He who accepts the invitation to the wedding must come wearing a wedding garment."

The bread and wine will be miraculously multiplied by sharing, but only if they are shared in the right way. The sharing must be done with love."

The following poem, contributed by a reader, offers a fitting conclusion:

GOD'S GIFT TO MAN
By THOMAS WARREN
To add to countless precious gifts
God did bestow another one.
It is the greatest gift of all.
He gave us his own beloved Son.

The blessings that do us surround
We do not fully realize—
We shun the things that work for good.

Perverseness is within us
born.
We ignore the fruit that is our food
And grasp the nettles and the thorn.
We would but appreciate
The working out of God's great plan
And practise love instead of hate
When dealing with our fellow man—
God will wipe away our tears
And sorrows we shall feel no more.

Mr. Warren says that if anyone wishes to comment, his address is 1118 2nd Street, S.E., Calgary, Alberta, Canada.

Business Has Perked Up With Loans

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business Inkeas Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—What could be the first crocus of spring popped up this week in the nation's financial centers. Business loans increased sharply.

That could mean that business is shaking off the oppressive blanket of a lingering winter and is pulling on track shoes. A real spring upturn in trade and industrial activity could be in the offing.

But the increased demand for funds was accompanied by a continued slide in interest rates—a seeming paradox.

So many bankers caution against either putting to much store by that first crocus or, on the other hand, taking it for granted that the decline in interest rates has much farther to go before leveling off or being reversed.

Bankers, of course, are notoriously cautious souls. If they weren't, your confidence in them might suffer.

While we wait for the trend in spring business to become clear in the weeks just ahead, here are the cross currents at present in the financial markets.

First is the stirring in the business field. Member banks of the Federal Reserve System in leading cities show commercial and industrial loans rising 748 million dollars in the week ending Wednesday. This brought the total to 31 billion dollars.

for three straight weeks. High-grade long-term bond prices continue to rise meaning a drop in yields. It also means there is more money around looking for investments than just a few weeks back.

While the effects of this so far have shown up largely in the bond markets, it could soon spread to other fields.

That would mean more money available for persons seeking mortgages or credit for any number of projects like home repairs and expansions.

Almost every home has something of value that may be a "don't want" to you, and a "want very much" for someone else! Maybe Junior's outgrown his bike, Mom would like a new washer, Pop's got his eye on some new hobby! Idle but useful items are lucky combinations for quick cash. But to sell 'em, you gotta tell about 'em! Do it with a low-cost, few-pennies-a-day Classified Ad in this paper. Phone 7-3431.

Variety for Next Week of Television

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Television gamut during the next seven days runs all the way from tonight's adaptation of Hemingway's "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" to a circus performance presided over by Joe E. Brown next Thursday. The Hemingway dramatization (CBS, 8:30-11 Eastern Standard Time) stars Robert Ryan, Ann Todd and Mary Astor. The competition is a fan magazine's (TV Guide) awards show on NBC (6:30-9:30), which also includes what is called "gentle spoofing" of television.

Sunday brings the debut of a CBS public-affairs series, "The Great Challenge," (12:30 p.m.) with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, former Air Force Secretary Thomas C. Finletter and Wesleyan University President Victor L. Butterfield discussing education.

Thomas E. Dewey will be the Sunday's "Meet the Press" interviewee (NBC, 6-6:30 p.m.), and Sunday Showcase (NBC, 8-9 p.m.) will be "The American," concerning the last days of war hero Ilya Hayes and starring Lee Marvin.

On Monday night (11:15 p.m.-1 a.m.) Jack Paar's first taped show from London will be seen on NBC.

Tony Curtis is the star of ABC's "The Juggler" (NBC, 8:30-9:30 p.m.) on Tuesday. At 10 ABC has one of its occasional documentaries, this one a look at Korea 10 years after the war.

ABC's "Music for a Spring Night" becomes an hour-long show Wednesday (7:30-8:30) with a tribute to the late Leonard Warren by such colleagues as Robert Merrill, Richard Tucker, Roberta Peters and Eleanor Steiner.

Circle Theatre (CBS, 10-11) presents "Trial by Fury," based on the experiences of a reporter arrested in Castro's Cuba.

The circus show — acts from Bortram Mills troupe — will fill an hour Thursday night (ABC, 8:30-9:30). NBC later will premiere its Hour of Great Mysteries series with "The Bat," starring Helen Hayes and Jason Robards Jr.

CBS's Thursday night revival (10-11) will be a Mickey Rooney special, from Hollywood.

First expeditions reached the South Pole and the North Pole within a space of only two years.

Several North American mountains have not yet been climbed.

A diver in a flexible suit once descended to an ocean depth of 535 feet.

HAS HER UPS AND DOWNS—Mrs. Jeff Hodges of Smyrna, Ga., finds the thin air of San Juan, Puerto Rico, just right for sitting. Camera catches her in mid-bounce. Small boy leans on her trampoline.

SIMPLY FLIPPED—This midget racing driver simply flipped over his performance. Despite the acrobatics, he walked away from the wreck.

EVERY PUNCH IN THE BOOK—The N-156F Freedom Fighter uses all of these weapons spread in front of it in Hawthorne, Calif., and others beside. The twin-jet Northrup plane carries an exceptionally high ratio of payload for its weight.

FOR SHALLOW WATER—The new Yankee can sail wherever there is water four feet deep. She is a 50-foot ketch.

OUT TWO WAYS—While a Braves' holdout, Lou Burdette whiled away time jumping his 16-foot catamaran out of the water at St. Cloud, Fla. With both outboard motors going at full throttle, the Milwaukee pitcher made the craft jump by crossing another boat's wake.

BEATS HOUSEWORK—Mrs. Olga Fikotova Connolly, who won the discus throw competing for Czechoslovakia in 1958, works under the watchful eye of husband Harold, who won the hammer throw for the U.S. Both hope to compete for the U.S. team in the next Olympics.

KEEPING HIS FEET ON THE CLOUDS—A Roman artist uses a brush as long as a walking stick while walking on the clouds he's painted. The huge work will be used as a backdrop for a performance of Verdi's opera "La Forza del Destino."

VERY ACTIVE SEASON—Puna volcano, Hawaii, erupts magnificently, throwing lava high into the air. A U.S. Coast Guard photographer flying aboard a Hawaiian Air National Guard plane took this photo. Volcano activity in the 50th state has been strong recently.

ASSIST FOR MISCHA—Lady, a polar bear at Woodland Park Zoo in Seattle, Wash., assists Mischa, her 3½-month-old cub, over a ledge. Mischa weighed a pound and a half at birth.

SUNNY SIDE OF THE HOUSE—That is no greenish use, above, which the Harry T. Thompson family lives in. The glass covers a solar heating plant on the side of the three-bedroom District Heights, Md., home. It enabled Thompson to heat his home this winter with energy from the sun and 15 gallons of fuel oil burned in a standard furnace. To demonstrate, Mrs. Thompson and the kids caved in an outdoor pool filled with water also warmed in the solar unit. Daddy livens up the party with a little unsolicited snow.

God's Word Says Come

Come let us go into the House of the Lord

have them

... More on the Golden Rule. How big is it? What will it do for a man? Just how far does it reach? Well, all major religions support it, and all ethical teachers of the ages confirm it. But Mr., it is a personal thing and consequently, it is only as big as you. Are you a good citizen, a good neighbor, a good American, a good Christian? These questions are asked with my own happiness and welfare in mind. You will treat me as you treat all others. Your character reflects your opinion of the Golden Rule. The title words, "Have Them," narrows our thinking but at the same time calls us to universal interest. Why should men stop to minister to others, especially, if I am one of them? A thorough, personal appreciation of the Golden Rule, will make of you a man fit to die, and will reward you with all that is eternal.

More on the Golden Rule next week.

You In The Church
The Church In You — form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.
